

Outback Roundup 2021

The Winners.

It was a tough year and our annual photo contest was also affected by the lockdowns. Not as many folks were out there with their cameras. To be expected. But quality isn't dependent on quantity, as you will see. And we still received more than 200 entries from 13 states from California to Missouri.

Our two top picks are presented here with the remaining winners to follow in the Fall and Winter issues.—John Bardwell, RANGE designer

1ST PLACE "Hello!"

I raised Ella from a calf. There was a storm and she was close to calving so I put her in an old shed/chicken coop. The next day she had her calf but before I got to her, I fed the rest of the cows. She heard me ride up and stuck her head out of a old window.

© Natalie Bumsted, Flandreau, South Dakota

BEST OF SHOW "A Good Catch"

The header, Breanna Jenkins, ropes a calf during branding on the Three Sisters Ranch in Mackay, Idaho.

© Rick Raef, Modesto, California